PG RATED MOVIES Department of Education regulations mean that school students are only able to watch G rated movies at school without parental permission. At times we may want to watch a PG rated video. If your child's class watches a PG rated video, the teacher will have viewed the video and deemed it suitable for the class. I give permission for my child to watch PG rated movies that have the approval of the Principal.		YES
		NO
CHILD PROTECTION LESSONS As part of the Personal Development/Health/Physical Education curriculum all children will participate in Child Protection lessons. These mandatory lessons will help children to identify dangerous or uncomfortable situations and to seek help from trustworthy adults. Some lessons may involve the naming of parts of the body. The Child Protection lessons have been developed by the Department of Education and they are an important program for schools. I give permission for my child to participate in Child Protection lessons.		YES

General Permission to Publish

Dear Parent/Caregiver,

I am seeking your permission to allow the school to publish information about your child for the purposes of sharing his/her experiences with other students, informing the school and broader community about school and student activities and promoting student participation in noteworthy projects or community service.

This information may include your child's name, age, class and information collected at school such as photographs, sound and visual recordings of your child, your child's work and expressions of opinion such as in interactive media.

The communications in which your child's information may be published or disclosed include but are not limited to:

- Primarily the weekly school newsletter, school website and in-school slideshows. Photographs are usually group photos without student names, ie. the school limits the number of points of identification.
- Public websites of the Department of Education including the school website, the Department of Education intranet (staff only), blogs and wikis.
- Department of Education publications including the annual school report and promotional material published in print and electronically including on the Department's websites.
- Official Department social media accounts on networks such as YouTube, Facebook and Twitter. The school does not have any social media accounts.
- Local and metropolitan newspapers and magazines and other media outlets.

If photographs are requested by the media, parent permission specific to each occasion will be sought.

Parents should be aware that when information is published on public websites and social media channels, it can be discoverable online for a number of years, if not permanently. Search engines may also cache or retain copies of published information. Published information can also be linked to by third parties.

Please complete this permission form and return to the school by Friday 18 February 2022

Sincerely,

Brian J Dill

Principal

I have read this permission to publish and:
